HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 21 of the Second Extraordinary Session
By Buttry

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Trey Nennstiel on becoming an Eagle Scout.

WHEREAS, at a time when the youth of our country face tremendous challenges, the Boy Scouts of America is one of this nation's greatest assets, providing young people ages six to twenty with an educational program geared toward character development, citizenship training and improved mental and physical fitness; and

WHEREAS, the highest rank a Boy Scout can attain is that of Eagle Scout, and Trey Nennstiel, after considerable hard work and preparation, has joined the prestigious Eagle Court of Honor; and

WHEREAS, the son of proud parents, George and Lynne Nennstiel, Trey is a junior at Farragut High School, where he has excelled academically; and

WHEREAS, Trey has an exemplary record of achievement as a member of Boy Scout Troop 125; and

WHEREAS, as a part of fulfilling the requirements for the Eagle Scout rank, Trey constructed eight bird houses and two "loafing pads" for parks in Farragut. The "loafing pads" allow wildlife to rest or sun themselves; and

WHEREAS, his Eagle project benefited his community and Tennessee and reflected the fine traditions of the Volunteer State; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that we pause to specially recognize Trey Nennstiel as one of the most outstanding young people in our state; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED
FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE
CONCURRING, That we hereby honor and commend Trey Nennstiel upon earning the rank of Eagle Scout and for his service to the state of Tennessee.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
